ANOTHER MEETING OF COUNCIL. Appointment of Committees-Ice Cream Sundays-Who took Down those

A special meeting of Council was held last night. Present-the Mayor, Aldermen Geddings, Potter, T. J. Mackey, E. W. M. Mackey, Greene, Cunningham, Collins, and Barrow; and L. F. Wall, Small, Brown, Thorne, Hampton, Howard, McKinlay, Holloway, colored.

The Mayor called attention to the fact that the special meeting of Council was called to announce the Standing Committees of Council, ia order to put the body in effectual working order. He said he had had a delicate duty to perform in making the selections. It was an important step, and in taking it he had endeavored to merge delicacy in public interest. It was hardly possible they would not meet the approbation of the board. He had had no time to consult with the board, but hoped they would be satisfied with the choice made.

The following are the standing committees Ways and Means—Aldermen T. J. Mackey, Cunningham, Greene, McKunlay, the Mayor. Vacant Offices and Council Journals—Alder-men McKinlay, E. P. Wall, E. W. M. Mackey. Wooden and Brick Puiklings—Aldermen Hol-oway, Barrow, Howard.

Retrenchment and Relief—Aldermen Cunningham, Geddings, L. F. Wall. City Lands—Aldermen Thorne, Hampton, E. Lighting the City-Aldermen E. P. Wall, Barrow, the Mayor.

Licenses—Aldermen Greene, Potter, Brown.

Contracts—Aldermen Collins, Holloway, the Accounts-Aldermen Geddings, Barrow, the Mayor.

Public Institutions, Buildings and Grounds—
Aldermen Geddings, Cunningham, Collins, Howard, Hampton.

Alderman J. F. Well, Pot-Steam Engines-Aldermen L. F. Wall, Potter, Hampton Artesian Well—Aldermen Howard, Greene, Small, Thorne.

Railroads—Aldermen E. W. M. Mackey, Cunningham, Potter, E. P. Wall, the Mayor.
Quarantine and Lazaretto—Aldermen Collins,

Tidal Drains—Aldermen Small, T. J. Macey, the Mayor. Streets—Aldermen Potter, Colline, Small.

on the unfinished business of the old board. Alderman Potter moved that the report be received as information. Adopted. Alderman T. J. Mackey offered the following

Aldermau McKinlay, (colored,) read a report resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved. That the Committee on Vacant Offices be directed to inquire and report without delay, as to what, if any, oity offices are held, and the power and authority of Council to remove incumbents of the same.

Resolved, That a special meeting be held on Friday, the 14th instant, at 8 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of hearing the report of said comresolutions, which were adopted :

the purpose of hearing the report of said committee, and of taking such action thereon as may be deemed proper in the premises. Alderman T. J. Mackey said that he was uncertain whether the name of E. P. Wall was put down among the names of the Committee on Vacant Offices. On examination it was found there. The Mayor said that there was a matter he deemed proper to bring before Council, one that caused him to be annoyed; and it was in reference to opening the ice cream gardens and fruit stores on Sunday. He did not know whether it was properly in his province to settle the matter, and if it was he deferred to Council. But he approved of said places being opened, provided they were conducted in an orderly way, and did not violate the Sabbath. He laid it before Council, desiring their views.

Alderman Collins said he bad been accosted several times on the subject, and would offer Republican, of yesterday, reports the following an amendment to an ordnance if not in his power to after it by appointion.

Alderman Cunningham said that the last Council had passed a resolution leaving the matter to the discretion of the Mayor. The Mayor thanked the Alderman for the information. Alderman Collins then offered the following resolution: Resolved, That the Mayor be authorized to regulate the rules for the Sabbath.

Alderman T. J. Mackey. Why, that resolution means nothing at all. The Mayor, (smiling.) I dont want too much power!

Alderman Collins-The gentleman (alluding to Alderman T. J. Mackey) is only taunting me with his remarks.

The Mayor rapped for order. Alderman Collins gave way to Alderman T. J. Mackey, who offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Mayor be, and is hereby, authorized to allow the vendors of ice cream and fruits to open their stores after 2 P. M. on Heisenbuttle petitioned Council to be required to pay only $66 66 license fee on a business just started, for the balance of the year.

Alderman Greene rose and said that the two portraits of Generals Lee and Stonewall Jackson, which had bung in the Council Chamber, had been removed, and the removal attributed to Council. He had examined into the matter and found it was not so. The Mayor knew nothing of the removal, nor did the Aldermen. He had called on a gentleman (alluding to Mr. W. H. Smith, Clerk of Council,) and asked him by whose authority those portraits were place there and removed. He replied that they were private property, and had been removed by the same person who put them up. He hoped that a member of the press, to whom these facts had been related, would have made the amende for ascribing in his paper the removal to Council, but he had but he bad served under one of those generals, spite, which had wrongfully been imputed to Council. One of those very generals had recently been called into the councils of the na-tion, and he was not ashamed of his past in connection with him.

The Mayor said he did not know what had een done with the pictures until he had been informed by other par ies. He certainly did not authorize or order them taken down, and after the explanation of the Alderman of Ward C. Twitty, D. J. Twitty and lady, T. G. Massie, No. 2, he hoped the reporters would do them all justice. Aiderman T. J. Mackey rose and said:

Mr. Mayor.—I concur, to some extent, with the views of the gentleman in reference to the removal of Jackson's and Lee's portraits. From the walls of this Council Chamber. My concurrence however, is only on the question of tasts. The portraits were well executed and elegantly framed. They were faithful likenesses of two American soldiers, who, however false may have been the political impulses that impelled them, have illustrated the martial renown and military genius of of our country. I shail not grieve, however, that their portraits are removed from this chamber. If they were here I would cover them with the veil of a decent and stient charity. And as a solace, I will move that at the proper moment, that where they stood we shall place the portraits of two other libusticus American soldiers—Sherm in and Sheridan.

The Mayor then remarkel, that sufficient had been said on the subject, and he left it to the gentlemes of the press present to set them Aiderman T. J. Mackey rose and said : the gentlemen of the press present to set them

Council then adjourned.

INTEREST ON OPEN ACCOUNTS .- Chief Justice Moses recently delivered the opinion of the Supreme Court that so much of the act of 1861, the stay lew, is unconstitutional.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.-At the anniversary meeting of the Second Presbyterian Church, held on Monday evening, the 10th instant, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

C. H. STAONTON. President. J ADGER SMYTHE, Secretary. A. McD. Brown, Treasurer. Standing Committee .- Messrs. Charles P. Frazer, C. N. Averill, A. McD. Brown, J. F. Robson, H. T. McGee and E. F. Sell.

THE FAIR was visited yesterday afternoon by the boys and girls of the Calhoun-street Orphan House and the girls under the charge of the Sisters of Mercy, Queen street. As they entered the hall, H. B. Olney, Esq., chairman of the Fair Committee, distributed funds really did the heart good to see them rambling over the hall, enjoying the many objects of interest to be seen. They made a charge on the great grab fish, and put his capacity to a test. They seemed to revel in delight, and after surfeiting themselves with sight-seeing, were withdrawn by the ladies under whose charge they came. In the evening there was a large attendance, and, as the fair draws to a close, the interest seems to increase rather than decline. There are hosts of pretty things still crying out for owners, and beyond all this there is the sacred purpose for which the fair is held, which should excite all the generosity of our natures and unlatch in a moment the most tightly closed pockets. To-night is the last but one for the firemen to ballot for the splendid prizes, as on Thursday night, at 10 o'clock precisely, the votes will be counted;

The following prizes were won last night: H. H. WHAT BRICK POMEROY DID WRITE AND WHAT HE DID NOT WRITE. Eight o'clock, and he is not here yet! How dresry this little room does seem, and I am so loneome! Ten o'clock. How I wish he would come It is so lonely here with the children asleep! Once he loved to stay with mr, but now, alas! Twelve o'clock, and I am so tired, I cannot sleep! My heart aches and grows sad. I am growing old, per haps. May be my face is not as fair as once, but my neart is as warm, though it is often sad.

ARE YOU DYSPEPTIC, Nervous, jaundiced, low spirited, weak, or are you sick and don't know what ails you; then try Planta Hon Bitters and our word for it, it will cure you.

What charms can be find in that foul-scente room, by that dusty table, cutting and dealing those dusty cards, filling himself with poison, tainting his breath, ruining his mind, undermining his constitu tion, planting seeds of disease, squandering his money, clouded with smoke, tired with excitement Is this happiness? is this life? Is this our mission Oh! I am so tired, do come home.

PLANTATION BITTERS. This delicious cordial and fine tonic is now hatled by thousands as the great health giver and restorer. Resolve to buy a bottle, and don't sleep on it. Be wise in time. Sold by all druggists.

DO YOU GO DOWN TOWN TO-NIGHT, MY PET ?" "No darling, I have labored enough to-day. Why should I flee from home, from happiness, from thee? Life is full short to love-too short to squander. love the photograph of my heart too well. No darling, my heart is here; here let me keep it company.'

PLANTATION BITTERS Are always pure, reliable. They are strengthening and invigorating, and are Exhausted Nature's great restorer. As an agreeable and pleasant tonic and appetizer, they cannot be excelled.

THEY WHO ARE RICH, Are they who mind their own business. Find a happy man or woman, and the affairs of another troubl them but a little. It is none of your business if th minister kisses one of the sisters, or one of the sis ers thus salutes the minister. It cannot effect you when a man you know calls on a girl you don't know, or one you do. What if there is kissing behind th door, in tunnels, and when the night is dark at the vestibule of the hurch, or even ever the gate. Would you not do the same thing if the chance was offered?

Of Plantation Bitters, taken three times a day, before each meal, will make the flame of life again burn brightly, and illuminated once wretched existence. For ladies it is an elegant and gentle stimulant, just such as they require.

He had frierds, and money, and a loving family, and position, and influence, and self-respect, and integrity, MERCURY GUAGES, LOW WATER DETECand a future of usefulness before him. But, my boy, he don't look like it now. He was elected to an mportant office. He forgot the lessons his good mother taught him, and was asked by designing politicians to sell his vote to a party of swindlers; h could not for the life of him give articulation to that little word, and so he fell.

HOW OFTEN DO WE HEAR THE COMPLAINT. From mother and father, that the son or daughter not well; that they have no appetite; that they feel languid; that the head aches all the time; that they are growing thin and feeble, and that they have no life nor energy left. And the questions are often asked. What shall I do for them? What shall I give them? Our answer is, let them try Plantation Bi ters moderately, three times a day, and our word for it they will recover.

Just like you and us, my boy. He has wit, sense education, intelligence, friends, ambition, and is loved. He has a knowledge of the world, acquired by mixing with its people. He has ambition and the same field in which to win honor, fame and distinction, as had Franklin, Fulton, Morse, and a host of others. He is naturally smart, but, Valter, my boy, as he meets us do you see the excess of mois ure in his eye, the little puffy ridge under it the gradual turning of the beautiful corners of the mouth, his mother so loved to hise. These, my boy, tell a sad tale of early shipwreek, of disease, of premature death, of neglected and squandered gifts. BEST SITTING DRAWERS IN THE CONLD, At BLACKWELL'S, INC. 210 ZING-SIREET.

AND HERE VALTER, IS A YOUNG MAN.
